

Katarína Minichová

- PhD
- M.A. in Film and Aesthetics from Charles University, Prague.
- A former film critic and theorist specialized in programs for children and young people. Her work in television (Slovak Television, STV) ranged from doing research on children as audience to analyzing feature, documentary, and animation programs
- Producer, executive producer and screenwriter of feature and animated programs
- Several national and international prizes for her feature and animated programs
- Author of numerous analytical studies and screenplays for television features
- Member of Jury at international festivals.
- Conductor of international workshops on film and television creativity for children.
- Member of the Expert Youth Group of the European Broadcasting Union (EBU) for over a decade.
- Lecturer at the Department of Animation, Academy of Music and Dramatic Arts in Bratislava since 1993.
- Program Director at the Biennial of Animation Bratislava (BAB), the international festival of animated films for children organized by Bibiana, the International House of Art for Children in Bratislava since 2006.

Biography

E-mail:bab@bibiana.sk