

Mohsen Chiniforoushan

Born in 1952, he has got M.S. in Cultural Programming Management and has been the General Director of Kanoon-Institute for the Intellectual Development of Children and Young Adults since 1992.

Kanoon is the most important film production company for children and youth in Iran; all kind of films: short and feature, animation and live-action)

He has also been the General Director of "Center for Education Support Materials", Director of "Roshd Int'l Education Film Festival", " Member of CIFEJ Jury in such festivals as Heyderabad Int'l Film Festival, Esfahan Int'l Film Festival, Roshd Int'l Film Festival (for 3 times) and also member of Jury of IRAN PRESS Festival (for 3 times), Iran Children's Book & Press Festival.

He was the founder and manager of Roshd Journals (1981), founder of Madresseh Publishing Center (1987); publisher of six " Roshd" Journals especially designed for students and teachers.

Having a good command of English, he is the translator and writer of 18 books for children and youth and also a number of cultural articles and reviews published in various papers and magazines.

He has given lectures in various seminars, focusing on art and literature for kids, about children's education and training, and on the world of children and adolescents.

He has received "Mention of Merit" Award, given by the President of the Islamic Republic of Iran for his cultural activities. He is also the winner of "Mention for Training" in Iran.

Biography